

REFERENCE / Team's Retreat

Business Challenge: This team of educators and learning assessors are gathering with the intent to bond and to embrace new mindset going into the new year. They always find time to build relationship within the group. And this year promises to challenge their individual and collective resilience in the face of expected changes. This day is expected to kick off a series initiatives and was asked - "Could you empower the team for this change?"

Activities/ Deliverable : pxd labs designed and delivered a customized 1 - day team retreat by activating LEGO® SERIOUS PLAY® method, complemented by purposeful play activities. The team was engaged and crafted a set of guiding principle as a based for their yearlong change initiatives.

"pxd labs was able to customize the workshop to our specific needs and nature. The session was highly engaging and insightful and there were many takeaways. Enjoyed listening to other insights."
